Hotel Residencia Rector

Paseo Rector Esperabé 10, 37008 Salamanca, Salamanca, Spain

Type of Accommodation: Hotel

In a city of ineffable loveliness, one of western Spain's most perfect small hotels. Señor Ferrán likes things to be 'just so' and examples of his care are found in every corner. There are two eye-catching stained-glass windows in reception, and wood is used to meticulous effect: sparkling parquet floors in the public rooms, inlaid tables and writing tables in the bedrooms; all is immaculate. You may not need the phone in the bathroom or the fax point in the bedroom but you'll be glad of the double glazing (you're in the centre of town), the deeply comfortable beds, the embroidered bed linen - and the iPod bases on request! Quietly lavish bathrooms in silvery marble have underfloor heating and Bulgari soaps. Superb standards at buffet breakfast too, where the staff are unfailingly courteous and helpful, and the spread lavish. Leave your car in the small hotel car park and head out on foot to explore: the cathedral is two minutes away. Close too is the interesting Casa Lis, a museum dedicated to Spanish Arts Nouveau and Deco. A small, charming and much-loved place.

Parking bookable in advance.
